

Some of the information about C.F. Andrews the students must know

A brief attribute of C.F. Andrews

Full Name	Charles Freer Andrews
Date of Birth	12th February, 1871 at Newcastle-upon-Tyne [North-East England]
Mother & Father	Mary Charlotte Andrews (née Carwright) John Edwin Andrews
Education	King Edward's School, Birmingham & Pembroke College, Cambridge
Activities in India	Came to India in 1904 as a teacher in St. Stephen's College, Delhi. Convinced Gandhiji to return to India from South Africa in 1915 Worked with Rabindranath Tagore to establish Vishwa Bharati
Books authored by C.F. Andrews	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ► The Relation of Christianity to the Conflict between Capital and Labour (1894) ► Mahatma Gandhi's Ideas, Including Selections from his Writings (1930) ► What I Owe to Christ (1932) [Autobiography] ► North India (1908) ► The Renaissance in India: Its Missionary Aspect (1912)
End of life	5th April, 1940; Christian Burial Ground of Lower Circular Road cemetery, Calcutta (Now Kolkata)
Commemorative Stamp (GOI)	Published by Govt. of India in 1971

